Calls of Interest

Offense: Forgery

Date: 12.28.16

Time: 1230 hours

Location: 15600 blk San Pedro

An officer was dispatched to a Forgery call. He met with a female who identified herself as the company accountant. The female reported that around November 30th or December 1st, she had issued a company check out to a moving company. Today she was called by movers and asked about the payment they were waiting for. The female advised them the check in question had been issued on November 30, 2016. The movers told her that they did not receive a check. All other payments had arrived without any issues except for the check issued to the movers. The female immediately called the bank to inquire about the check. The bank told her that the check had been cashed on 12/09/2016 at a New Braunfels branch. The bank then sent the female a copy of the cashed check. The check had been altered. A name had been added next to the moving company's name. This case is under investigation.

Offense: Burglary of a Building

Date: 12.28.16

Time: 1300 hours

Location: 15300 blk San Pedro

An officer was dispatched for a burglary report. Upon arrival, contact was made with the owner of the business. The owner reported he had stopped by the office at approximately 1815 hours to grab some items. The owner related when he entered his office at the rear of the suite, he immediately noticed a bottom drawer to his desk to be open and appeared to have been rummaged through. The owner this drawer is always locked. The owner also related a deposit bag was out on his desk and cancelled checks inside the bag were thrown about. The owner said the bag also contained approximately $40 cash that appeared to be missing. The owner had not been at the location for the past couple days, so he had called his business partner who operates out of the same suite. His business partner had been the last one out of the office on 12/27/2016 and then returned on 12/28/2016. The owner inquired with his business partner if anything was out of the ordinary and she informed him she had noticed a light on in a utility closet that is never on and she thought the door might have been unlocked because as she entered the business, the key turned easier than normal. Upon inspection of the exterior doors to the suite, there were no signs of forced entry. It is unknown how entry was gained.

Offense: Disturbance

Date: 12.30.16

Time: 1640 hours

Location: 13800 blk San Pedro

An officer was dispatched to a disturbance. The dispatcher indicated that there was a physical fight between a male and female at the location and provided descriptions of the involved parties and their vehicle. When the officer arrived, he observed a vehicle with two occupants matching the description. The officer activated the patrol unit's emergency lights and told the driver to stop the car and exit the vehicle. The officer conducted a pat down of the male driver to check for weapons and detained him immediately given the violent nature of the call. The officer informed the male of why he was dispatched. The male stated there was no fight and that "people just don't know how to mind their own business". The female passenger also stated that there was no fight. The female stated "He didn't hit me, look I have no marks" and when asked if she was okay, she replied "yes". Neither of them had a valid driver's license. The male was informed that he was going to be released and not cited, but that he was not going to be allowed to drive the vehicle. The male asked an employee of the business if the vehicle could be left in the parking lot and they would have someone pick it up later. The employee granted permission, however; the employee also wanted a Criminal Trespass Warning issued to the couple. The male and female received Criminal Trespass Warnings and were released. Due to the lack of evidence of any crime having been committed, no further action was taken on the matter.

Offense: Disturbance-Noise

Date: 12.31.16

Time: 2230 hours

Location: 200 blk Crest Trail

An officer was informed of large clouds of smoke coming from the area of Crest Trail. The officer proceeded to the area and observed some people in the driveway of a house located on Crest Trail. The people were setting off fireworks. The officer reminded the homeowners of the city ordinance violation and requested that they cease the activity. They were very cooperative and apologized for setting off fireworks. They put all the items away and promised to cease the activity. No further activity was seen coming from the home for the remainder of the night. No further action was necessary.
