An officer was dispatched to a local business in the 15600 block of San Pedro in reference to a motor vehicle that needed to be reported as stolen. When the officer arrived at the listed business, they contacted the business manager, who stated the company owned vehicle was not where it was parked the previous day. The manager stated all of the employees at the location were asked if they had taken the vehicle. The manager also called the corporate office to inquire with them that no one had taken the vehicle.
