Offense: Possession of Narcotic Paraphernalia

Date: 01.15.19

Time: 1054 hours

Location: 13800 Blk. San Pedro Ave.

An officer stopped a vehicle for a traffic violation, which occurred in the 13800 block of San Pedro Ave. Upon contact with the occupants of the vehicle, the officer detected a strong odor of marijuana coming from within the vehicle. The officer had the occupants exit the vehicle and asked about the odor. The driver stated there was narcotic paraphernalia in a backpack inside the vehicle. The officer retrieved the paraphernalia and secured it in the patrol vehicle. The driver was issued a citation for the paraphernalia. No other narcotic were discovered inside the vehicle or on the occupants.

Offense: Narcotic Possession

Date: 01.16.19

Time: 1520 hours

Location: 14800 Blk. San Pedro Ave.

Officers were dispatched to a crash in the 14800 block of San Pedro Ave. Upon arrival, officers ensured both drivers were not injured. The officers began to process the crash scene. While completing this task, it was learned that one of the drivers did not have insurance on the vehicle involved in the crash. As a result, the officers explained that the car would be impounded. As the officers completed and inventory of the vehicle subject to impoundment, several items of narcotics and narcotic paraphernalia were discovered. The items were photographed, field tested, and secured. The field test indicated a presumptive positive test for methamphetamines. Several other designer narcotic items were also collected. The driver was placed under arrest and booked for the narcotic possession. This case was forwarded to the Criminal Investigations Division for follow up.
