Section One. Definitions. As used in this ordinance the following words have the meaning indicated:

Section Four. Fee. The fee each Peddler License shall be paid with submission of the application in the following amounts:

- A. For a peddler a fee of $50.00 per day.
- B. For a solicitor (including a commercial solicitor advertising an event, activity, good or service for purchase at a location away from the residence).....no fee.
- C. For a canvasser requesting a Peddler License.....no fee.
- D. For a replacement peddler license a fee of $25.00.

Application fees are non-refundable.

Section Five. Application for Peddler License. Any person or organization (formal or informal) may apply for one or more peddler licenses by completing an application form at the office of the issuing officer of the City, during regular office hours. The peddler license shall be issued within three business days of receipt by the issuing officer of a fully completed application, unless it is determined within that time that:

- A. the applicant has been convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude within the past seven years; or
- B. with respect to a particular license, the individual for whom the license is requested has been convicted of any felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude within the past seven years or is required to register as a sex offender; or
- C. any statement upon the application is false, unless the applicant can demonstrate that the falsehood was the result of excusable neglect.

Section Six. Contents of Application. The applicant (person or organization) shall provide the following information:

- A. Name of applicant.
- B. Number of peddler licenses requested.
- C. The name, physical description and photograph of each person for which a license is requested. In lieu of this information, a driver's license, state identification card, passport, or other government-issued identification card (issued by a government within the United States) containing this information may be provided, and a photocopy taken. If a photograph is not supplied, the city may take an instant photograph of each person for which a license is requested at the application site. The actual cost of the instant photograph will be paid by the applicant.
- D. The permanent and (if any) local address of the applicant.
- E. The permanent and (if any) local address of each person for whom a license is requested.

M. Any other information the applicant wishes to provide, perhaps including copies of literature to be distributed, references to other municipalities where similar activities have occurred, etc.

Section Seven. Investigation. During the time following the application for one or more peddler licenses and its issuance, the city shall investigate as to the truth and accuracy of the information contained in the application. If the city has not completed this investigation within three business days, the license will nonetheless be issued, subject, however, to administrative revocation upon completion of the investigation. If a canvasser requests a peddler license, the investigation will proceed as described above, but if the city refuses to issue the peddler license (or revokes it after issuance), the canvassers will be advised that the failure to procure a peddler license does not prevent him/her from canvassing the residents of the city.

Section Eight. Revocation of license.

A. Grounds. Any license issued hereunder may be revoked if the license holder is convicted of a violation of any provisions of this article or has knowingly made a false material statement in the application or otherwise becomes disqualified for the issuance of a license under the terms of this article.

B. Notice. If the issuing officer denies (or upon completion of an investigation revokes) the peddler license to one or more persons he shall immediately convey the decision to the applicant orally and shall within three business days after the denial prepare a written report of the reason for the denial which shall be immediately made available to the applicant.

C. Appeal; hearing. The licensee shall have ten (10) days from the date of revocation or denial in which to file notice of his appeal to the city council from the order denying or revoking the license. The applicant shall have at his option an appeal of the denial of his application before the city council, at its next regular meeting. After holding the hearing on the revocation or denial, the city council shall by majority vote either sustain the action or issue an order directing issuance or reinstatement of the license.

D. In the event of the filing of an appeal from a revocation issued under the provisions of this article, then, until such appeal has been determined by the city council, such revocation order shall be stayed.

Section Nine. Hearing on Appeal. Any hearing of an appeal will be held by the City Council at its next regular meeting for which timely notices under the Texas Open Meetings Act may be provided. The hearing shall be subject to the Texas Open Meetings Act and Texas Public Information Act.

Section Ten. Display of Peddler License. Each peddler license shall be (when the individual for whom it was issued is acting as a peddler or solicitor) worn on the outer clothing of the individual or otherwise displayed, as so to be reasonably visible to any person who might be approached by said person.

Section Eleven. Validity of Peddler License. A peddler license shall be valid within the meaning of this ordinance for a period of one year from its date of issuance or the term requested, whichever is less.

Section Twelve. Revocation of License by Municipal Court Judge. A municipal court judge, in addition to imposing a fine, may institute proceedings to suspend or revoke the peddler license of a person if the person is required by law to obtain a peddler license from the city and the judge finds the person guilty of violating a city ordinance relating to peddlers.

Section Thirteen. “No Visit” List. The issuing officer shall maintain a list of persons within the city who restrict visits to their residential property (including their leasehold, in the case of a tenant) by peddlers, solicitors, and canvassers. The issuing officer may provide a form to assist residents, and this form may allow the resident to select certain types of visits that the resident finds acceptable while refusing permission to others. This “no visit” list shall be a public document, and may be reproduced on the city’s web site and available for public inspection and copying. A copy of the “no visit” list shall be provided to each applicant for and each recipient of a peddler license. If a canvasser chooses not to apply for a peddler card, it will be the responsibility of that canvasser to obtain in some other way a copy of the current “no visit” list.

Section Fourteen. Distribution of Handbills and Commercial Flyers. In addition to the other regulations contained herein, a solicitor or canvasser leaving handbills or commercial flyers about the community shall observe the following regulations:

B. No handbill or flyer shall be left at, or attached to any privately owned property in a manner that causes damage to such privately owned property.

C. No handbill or flyer shall be left at, or attached to any of the property: (a) listed on the city “no visit” list, or (b) having a “no solicitor” sign.

D. Any person observed distributing handbills or flyers shall be required to identify himself/herself to the police (either by producing a peddler license or other form of identification). This is for the purpose of knowing the likely identity of the perpetrator if the city receives a complaint of damage caused to private property during the distribution of handbills or flyers.

Section Fifteen. General Prohibitions. No peddler, solicitor, or canvasser shall:

A. Enter upon any private property where the property has clearly posted in the front yard a sign visible from the right of way (public or private) indicating a prohibition against peddling, soliciting and/or canvassing. Such sign need not exceed one square foot in size and may contain words such as “no soliciting” or “no solicitors” in letters of at least two inches in height. The phrase “no soliciting” or “no solicitors” shall also prohibit peddlers and canvassers.

B. Remain upon any private property where a notice in the form of a sign or sticker is placed upon any door or entrance way leading into the residence or dwelling at which guests would normally enter, which sign contains the words “no soliciting” or “no solicitors” and which is clearly visible to the peddler, solicitor or canvasser.

C. Enter upon any private property where the owner or current occupant has posted the property on the city’s “no visit” list (except where the posting form indicates the occupant has given permission for this type of visit), regardless of whether a front yard sign is posted.

D. Use or attempt to use any entrance other than the front or main entrance to the dwelling, or step from the sidewalk or indicated walkway (where one exists) leading from the right-of-way to the front or main entrance, except by express invitation of the resident or occupant of the property.

E. Remove any yard sign, door or entrance sign that gives notice to such person that the resident or occupant does not invite visitors.

F. Enter upon the property of another except between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

G. For a commercial solicitor or peddler to solicit for a purpose other than that set out in the application upon which the license was issued.

H. Transfer a license to anyone else.

I. Use a license issued to another applicant or person.

The above prohibitions shall not apply when the peddler, solicitor, or canvasser has an express invitation from the resident or occupant of a dwelling allowing him/her to enter upon any posted property.

Section Sixteen. Solicitation in public right-of-way.

- A. A person may solicit for a charitable or political purpose in or upon the public right-of-way, except those areas prohibited in this article.
- B. A person may conduct commercial solicitation in or upon the public right-of-way, except those areas prohibited in this article, if the solicitor has obtained a license or who is a member of an organization that has obtained a license.
- C. Solicitation for any purpose in the public right-of-way shall be conducted only during the hours of daylight, specifically one-half (1/2) hour after sunrise and one-half (1/2) hour before sunset.
- D. It shall be unlawful for a person younger than eighteen (18) years of age to solicit in the public right-of-way.
- E. It shall be unlawful for a solicitor at any time to enter or remain in the traveled portion of the roadway unless the solicitor has been granted authorization pursuant to § 552.0071 of Chapter 552 of the Texas Transportation Code.
- F. It shall be unlawful for a solicitor at any time to enter or remain in the traveled portion of a roadway if their presence impedes the flow of traffic.

The measurement of the distance shall be made from the nearest property line of the public or private elementary or secondary school.

Section Seventeen. Violation. Any person violating any part of this ordinance or failing to observe any provision of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars. Every day the violation continues shall be deemed as a separate offense.

Section Eighteen. Severability. It is hereby declared to be the intention of the City Council that the sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses, phrases and words of this ordinance are severable, and if any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or word(s) of this ordinance shall be declared unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, such unconstitutionality or invalidity shall not affect any of the remaining sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses, phrases and words or this ordinance since the same would have been enacted by the City Council without the incorporation in this ordinance of any such unconstitutional or invalid portion of the ordinance.

Section Nineteen. Effective Date. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after August 16, 2018.
